

DR. NOWLIN MAKES
TALKS TO PUPILS
OVER THE COUNTY

LECTURES TO COMMENCE THURSDAY AT NICHOLSON, IN THE FOURTH DISTRICT.

TO SPEAK ON "PROPHYLAXIS"

Will Demonstrate Proper Way of Caring For Teeth With Brush and Floss—Card With Instructions to be Issued to all Students.

Dr. C. D. Nowlin, Columbia dentist, will commence on Thursday a tour of the county schools of the county, lecturing to the pupils on the general subject of "Prophylaxis and Oral Hygiene." The first lecture will be given at Nicholson in the Fourth district. Prof. Lester Hardison is principal of the school.

Following the lecture at Nicholson, Dr. Nowlin will make talks on the same general subject at Theta, Woodrow, Hampshire, Glendale, Enterprise, and Santa Fe. The lectures will probably be given at intervals of a week, and the dates will be arranged with the principals as quickly as possible. Ed D. Hunter is the member of the Board of Education from the Fourth district and is actively behind Dr. Nowlin in arranging for the students to hear the lectures.

After completing his lectures in the Fourth district, Dr. Nowlin will probably talk to the school pupils in other sections of the county. Learning of his plans, several schools have already requested him to come and talk to them, and desire the lecture in the afternoon in order that the parents may have the opportunity of hearing the speeches. Dr. Nowlin, however, prefers talking in the morning when the children are fresh and untired by school work.

In all the talks Dr. Nowlin will stress the necessity for the care of the first teeth and the preservation of the six-year molars. He will demonstrate the proper use of the tooth brush and the silk floss. He will give to each student a card with instructions for the proper care of the mouth. Dr. Nowlin has taken a medical degree in addition to his dental one, and his work in teaching the children the proper care of their teeth is expected to aid in their health and mental ability.

JASPER WINN IS BOUND OVER

NEGRO CHARGED WITH ASSAULT AND BATTERY WITH INTENT TO COMMIT MURDER.

Jasper Winn, colored, appeared in the magistrate's court before Squire Alexander on Wednesday to answer to the charge of assault and battery with intent to commit murder and was bound over to the grand jury. C. P. Fletcher represented the defendant. It will be remembered that Winn was arrested a short time ago charged with attacking Andrew Bennett in an affray at Barlan's Mines. It is said that Bennett was cut in seven places and was badly injured by Winn. The affray is said to have originated about a woman.

GOV. TOM C. RYE WILL SPEAK IN COLUMBIA
ON MONDAY, OCT. 23

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OF TENNESSEE TO PRESENT CLAIMS FOR RE-ELECTION.

CORDI L RECEPTION ASSURE

Democrats Without Regard to Previous Factional Differences Will Come Together to Give the Faithful Servant Royal Welcome.

Gov. Tom C. Rye, democratic nominee for reelection for chief executive of Tennessee, will speak in Columbia on Monday, October 23, at 1 o'clock. Announcement to this effect was made today by the state democratic committee.

The coming of Gov. Rye to Columbia and Maury county will be the event of the campaign of this year. The governor will probably receive the most enthusiastic reception of any candidate who will come to Maury county this year. He has increased in popularity and in the esteem of the people of the county ever since he was inducted into the office of governor, nearly two years ago.

It is planned to make the coming of Gov. Rye a notable event here. The governor, it is hoped, will dispel the lethargy that prevails to such an alarming extent among the democrats of the county. His coming on Monday is a fortunate event because on that day there are usually more country people in the city than on any other.

It is expected that the local democrats, without regard to previous factional differences, will get together at an early date and will make preparations for the reception of the governor here.

COVEY OF QUAIL
CALL ON STREETS

SCATTERED BY PASSERS-BY THE BIRDS TAKE REFUGE IN TREES ON WEST SEVENTH.

A covey of quail in the trees at the corner of High and West Seventh streets attracted much attention Wednesday afternoon. The covey had been scattered by passers-by and had taken refuge in the thick trees where the birds called to each other all the afternoon.

A fox chase through the streets has become not so rare as formerly, but a covey of quail on the streets is without precedent in the history of Columbia.

With impressive religious services conducted by Bishop Atkins, the 103rd annual session of the Tennessee Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, convened in the Mt. Pleasant Methodist church at 9 o'clock this morning. This is the first time that the conference ever met in that city.

With the singing of that grand old hymn, "Am I a Soldier of the Cross?" the conference was formally opened. Bishop Atkins delivered a strong address, after which the roll of members was called by the secretary of the last conference, Rev. Geo. L. Beale, and some 250 members, laymen and ministers answered to their names.

The conference proceeded to the election of a secretary and Rev. Geo. L. Beale, who has held the place for ten years or since the death of the late Lewis R. Amis, was unanimously elected. He nominated and the conference confirmed the following assistant secretaries: Rev. A. M. Trawick, John Durrett, Cullen T. Cate, J. V. Garrett, statistical secretary; J. F. Tinnon, railroad secretary.

Question 22: "Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration?" was called and all the presiding elders answered and their characters were passed. They reported on conditions in their several districts. Without exception the reports were of the most encouraging nature. There have been increases in the collections and in the membership in all the districts. Every department of the church work shows progress during the year.

Following the reports of the presiding elders the names of the pastors in charge in the Clarksville, Columbia, Dickson, Franklin, Fayetteville and Gallatin districts, were called, their reports made and their characters passed. One of the best reports submitted was made by Dr. William Benjamin Ricks, from the First Church, Columbia. During the year this church has made large gain in membership and all of its finances were up in full.

The reports from the Columbia district generally were encouraging, nearly every charge showing a gain during the year in the membership. The report from Pulaski, made by Dr. J. J. Stowe, was exceptionally good.

Bishop W. A. Candler arrived and was presented to the conference. He will preach this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Committees were announced as follows, together with the meeting places of each.

Committee on Public Worship—John P. Beasley, J. Allison Molloy, W. H. Kittrell.

The conference at 12:30 o'clock adjourned until tomorrow morning. The following religious services were announced by the committee on public worship:

This afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Methodist church, Bishop Candler. Tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Methodist church, address by Prof. R. K. Morgan.

Tonight at the Presbyterian church, Dr. William Benjamin Ricks, of Columbia.

Mt. Pleasant is royally entertaining the conference. It has literally opened wide its doors and members declare without exception that never before has the conference been more cordially welcomed or more royally entertained than here.

When the special train from Nashville arrived with the members of the conference at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon sixty automobiles met the train and conveyed the delegates to the homes to which they had been assigned. A committee had gone to Nashville to accompany the delegates to this place.

This morning forty cars met the train to receive the later arrivals. The doors of the Maury Club and the King's Daughters' Home here have been thrown open and an entertainment committee is on hand all the time to minister to the wants of the delegates.

The opening sermon of the conference was preached at 7:30 o'clock last night by Rev. R. H. Hudgens, of Gallatin. The church auditorium was completely filled and he delivered a masterly sermon on "Ambassadors of Christ." There are now in attendance on the conference something over 250 and more are expected tomorrow.

The outstanding feature of the morning session was the speed with which business was disposed of. Half of the districts called and reports received on the first day is an unusual record.

DR. G. C. BREWER
TO REMAIN AS PASTOR OF FIRST CHRISTIAN

DECLINES FLATTERING CALLS TO OTHER FIELDS OF SERVICE.

EVANGELIZE PART OF THE TIME

Had Opportunity To Go To Portland, Me., to Memphis And to Other Work—News Will be Gratifying to Members and People Generally.

At the meeting of the congregation of the First Christian church on Tuesday night, arrangements were made by which Rev. G. C. Brewer, pastor of the church, will stay with this church for another year. The meeting was largely attended and much enthusiasm was manifested.

Dr. Brewer has received several very flattering calls, some of them at most substantial increases in salary, and especially was one of the calls that to evangelistic services all of the time, pleasing to him, for he is a great success in this field of work.

Calls came to him from Portland, Maine, Memphis, and other points. However, after the congregation had voted to allow Mr. Brewer part of the time for evangelistic services he agreed to stay, although the compensation which he will receive here will be very much less than he would have obtained had he accepted some of the calls.

The fact that Dr. Brewer has definitely decided to remain in Columbia will be gratifying not only to the members of the First Christian church but also to the friends generally regardless of church affiliations, as he is popular and universally esteemed.
